A very wet, heavy rain day greeted a large and active crowd for the 25th Annual Rancher's Choice bull sale in Nixon, TX. Many of the buyers were repeat buyers that come every year to make their Charolais bull selections. The sale is known by usually the exact same consignors that have developed strong ties to their bull buying customers. They do offer excellent service to the buyers and that has greatly contributed to their success! Bulls sold to Texas, Louisiana, & Arkansas.

*Gary & Christel Biggs had the high selling group of bulls, 9-hd that averaged $ 4433.00
Bill & Raye Arlitt had the 2nd high selling group of bulls, 13-hd that averaged $ 4315.00
Rick & Cindy Evans had the 3rd high selling group of bulls, 5-hd that averaged $ 4150.00*
